

SERVICES

Turn-key engineering with a difference.

Throughout the life cycle of a project, Tekfen Engineering offers their Clients a comprehensive range of services.

Since its establishment Tekfen Engineering have evolved and become a multi-disciplinary engineering company which renders all design and consultancy services required for the development of complex industrial, infrastructure and transportation projects. Our main target groups are petrochemical industry, power plants, fertilizer plants, bulk handling systems, pharmaceutical industry, marine terminals, transportation and urban design.

Tekfen Engineering has the capability to carry out Front End Engineering Design for certain processes with the support of their process engineering department which is continuously growing.

The services provided by Tekfen Engineering could be grouped under the following categories:

- Basic and Detailed Engineering Design
- Process Technology, Instrumentation and Equipment Design
- Procurement Management
- Project Management
- Construction Management